UNITING CHURCH IN THE CITY TRINITY SCHOOL FOR SENIORS STUDENT CHARTER

The Trinity School for Seniors (TSFS) is a mission outreach of the Uniting Church in the City (UCIC), committed to helping older adults to participate in lifelong learning and to foster and enhance friendship and companionship on this journey. The Trinity School for Seniors functions as an inclusive community facility, to provide education and a mutual support network which meets the physical, emotional, social, intellectual, pastoral and spiritual needs of Seniors in the wider Perth community.

The Uniting Church in the City's vision states:

“On the way with Jesus, to touch and transform the people of Perth, to journey with the wider church, and to engage with our neighbours in the world.”

The objects of the Trinity School for Seniors are to provide:

- Companionship: by conducting activities for students which enhance friendships and the sharing of mutual interests;
- Learning: through structured learning programmes for students which increase their skills and knowledge and their capacity to contribute meaningfully to community life;
- Well-Being: through the conduct of activities and structured learning programmes for students which assist them to remain physically and mentally healthy.

The Trinity School for Seniors School was started in 1979 at Trinity Church celebrating its 40th anniversary in 2019. TSFS currently provides in excess of 110 courses for 600+ students, over five days during a term, and over four terms per year.

PURPOSE

The Student Charter reflects these inter-related visions and is an expression of values and intent. The purpose of the Student Charter is for students of TSFS to understand what it means to be a student at TSFS, and includes the expectations students and staff at TSFS have of each other and the schools role and how it fits into the operation of the UCIC.

EXPECTATIONS

Students can expect the right to:

- Be treated fairly and ethically, with respect, dignity and tolerance;
- Have access to information about TSFS regulations, policies and procedures;
- To learn in a supportive and encouraging environment;
- Have their opinion represented through the Student Voice on all matters affecting students;
- Have opportunities to contribute to the organisational, social and cultural life of TSFS through the Student Voice body, together with opportunities to provide feedback for the improvement of TSFS;
- Representation on the TSFS Committee of Management through the due process for election to that body;
- A safe and healthy environment;
- To have any records concerning them dealt with in ways that are secure, with access restricted to designated persons of TSFS;
- To be given a copy of this charter when first enrolled;

Students have the responsibility to:

- Recognise the rights of others, including the rights of other students covered by this Charter, as well as the rights of staff, tutors and visitors;
- Uphold the reputation of the TSFS while engaged in TSFS activities;
- Respect the UCIC / TSFS property and the property of others;
- Not purport to speak or act on behalf of the TSFS, unless explicitly authorised to do so.

TSFS expects students to:

- Behave in a manner that demonstrates respect, dignity and tolerance towards staff of TSFS, tutors and fellow students;
- Adhere to TSFS rules, regulations, policies and procedures;
- Actively and positively participate in teaching and learning;
- Contribute to the organisational, social and cultural life of the TSFS;
- Regularly attend courses for which they have enrolled.

Block Printing for Beginners

Jim Larkins

Come to these craft-based classes and learn how to compose a picture by printmaking blocks and various painting mediums. Come along and have some fun whilst learning some new creative artistic expressions. Materials list available.

Drawing

Drawing is an indispensable tool for many other fields of creative pursuit. Learning to draw properly will give you a much better chance of achieving the artistic and creative goals you may have, giving you the ability to see and express more efficiently.

Materials list available.

Drawing Beginners

Vincent Elliott (WED)

This drawing course will offer you a good basic beginning in drawing fundamentals and basics. Materials list available.

Christine Morton (MON & FRI)

This drawing course will offer you a good basic beginning in drawing fundamentals and basics using pencil and fineliner. Turning everyday objects into an imaginative composition. For those interested, Christine will also teach you to add watercolour wash to your drawings. Materials list available.

Drawing Intermediate (TUE)

Melvyn Scholtz

This drawing course will offer you a progression on your drawing fundamentals. Materials list available.

Drawing (Caren)

Caren Williams

Explore the fundamentals of drawing, using line, shading and perspective to create form, depth and texture. This class is for beginners and ongoing students. All skill levels welcome. Materials list available.

Drawing (Ruth R)

Ruth Robartson

This drawing course aims to give the student a firm basis from which they can move on to colour and paint. That basis consists of training the eye to see and the hand to use the pencil to replicate in a line, drawing the subject. All skill levels welcome. Materials list available.

Friday Handcraft Group

Elizabeth Durman

Do you need advice to help with some unfinished craft work, or would you like to start a new project? My main interests are small cross stitch items, knitting and crochet and I have many reference books as a back-up. Please bring your own materials, scissors and needles or let us know your interests.

Needlework Social Group

Faye Etherington

Join a group who share and help each other with hand-sewing, patchwork, cross-stitch, knitting, crochet or any other needlework. Bring your own project along and your equipment. If you would like to learn to knit, bring 8ply wool and 4mm/No. 8 knitting needles. If you would like to learn to crochet, bring 8ply wool and a 4mm hook.

Note: This class is scheduled from 10am – 2.30pm on Wednesdays and Thursdays during term time. If you enrol for this class you are welcome to stay for the whole day, or come along for any length of time during the class that suits you. This is the only class where this option is available, allowing students to join in around their other classes if they wish.

Oil & Acrylic

Ruth Cohen

Oil or Acrylic painting where the emphasis is on informality, beauty, fun and understanding the energy of art. Materials list available.

Oriental Brush Painting

Beata Fung

Learn the basic differences on popular kinds of paper, brushes, strokes, ink and paints. Understand different kinds and usages of paper. Step by step introduction to different painting techniques: from orchards, bamboo, flowers, vegetables, birds and many more. All experience levels welcome in this class from beginners to advanced, where students can develop their brush skills and create more intricate designs. Materials list available.

Origami – Paper Folding

George Ho

Origami is the art of paper folding. Learn the techniques to transform a piece of paper into an interesting object, for example a flower, bird or fish. Origami improves hand-eye coordination and fine motor skills. Beginners welcome. All materials will be provided.

Painting (Cynthia)

Cynthia Haumann

Students develop their own painting projects with the help of the tutor as required to solve any technical, conceptual or compositional problems. Students will receive both individual and collective tuition. The course aims to give the students the confidence and skills to tackle any painting they are thinking of instead of being limited by a “I can't do that” attitude. Materials list available.

Palette Knife Art

Cynthia Haumann

Develop your painting skills using palette knives instead of paint brushes. Students will receive both individual and collective tuition. Students develop their own painting projects with the help of the tutor as required to solve any technical, conceptual or compositional problems. Materials list available.

Paper Craftwork

Jim Larkins

Come to this craft class and learn the art of creating and making your own paper craftworks – projects include paper sculptures and/or three-dimensional collages. Come along with your ideas, pick your project and we'll help you develop these ideas into your craftwork. Paper sculptures are created from unwanted books, magazines, envelopes and newspapers by binding them with glue and moulding into three dimensional interesting shapes. Three-dimensional collage projects use existing cardboard structures (boxes) designed and decorated to suit your creative instincts. Materials list available.

Photography

Kim Stewart

Learn to take better photographs without needing professional gear! Covering the basics of photography, principles of composition, why use certain settings, etc. Designed for those who want to improve the quality of the images they take by understanding the basic principles of photography. This course won't be applicable for taking photos on your phone, it is designed to help you get the most out of using your digital camera. This will be a very small class, so for those that have completed Kim's Photography classes before, this will be an opportunity to extend on what you've learnt. All are welcome, beginners and intermediate.

Porcelain Art

Ruth Robartson

Learn how to decorate porcelain ware. Any design can be painted and porcelain pieces are fired for permanency. Some porcelain ware is available at discounted prices from the tutor. Basic materials supplied.

Soft Pastels

Sue McGowan(MON)/ Melvyn Scholtz(TUE)

This course is suited to the student who has at some time in life completed a drawing course or some other art course and would like to try pastels. Learn or improve on all subjects - flora/fauna, figure drawing, landscapes and modern art/drawing and sketching as you go. It is a delightful art form which allows you to quickly produce a picture without waiting for paint to dry. All skill levels welcome in these classes – from beginners to advanced. Materials list available

Watercolour (Jeanne)

Jeanne McWhirter

This course will cater for the complete beginner to the more advanced student, with ongoing tips and techniques to further your skills. Materials list available.

Watercolour, Pen and Wash (Tony)

Tony Turner

A loose approach to drawing and painting. Take on a variety of both simple and complex subjects using free use of pencil, inks and watercolour. Materials list available.

Woodcarving

Bob Brown

Continued Class

This course serves as a continuation for students who have previous experience and knowledge of woodcarving. Students will have a range of options for projects or may bring a project of their own choosing. There will be instruction in basic skills in the use of other small hand tools such as palm gouges and small files, rifflers and rasps. There will also be instruction in the preparation and use of sand paper and other abrasives. All materials will be provided. Special blanks of wood may be purchased from the tutor at $2 each.

Beginners class

This course will give beginners practical experience in carving small hand held items with a wood carving knife. The course is designed for beginners with no experience in woodcarving. An interest in trying something new is all you need. All materials will be provided. Special blanks of wood may be purchased from the tutor at $2 each.

FITNESS

Line Dancing

Sue Brett

Come join us for a fun filled class of line dancing. Learn repeated sequencing of steps to fabulous music; good for everyday fitness. Wear suitable shoes or boots with smooth soles required (joggers or sandals not advisable). Some previous experience is helpful but not essential. Add an extra dose of joy and positivity to your day with a dance class.

Tai Chi

Tai Chi I & II

Claire Pope

In this class we focus on breathing as we enjoy the easy-to-follow movements. With practice, we can improve leg strength and balance. All students welcome to join with no experience necessary. Wear activity appropriate clothing and footwear. Please note: students may enrol in one of Claire's Tai Chi classes per term, not both.

Tai Chi (Nena)

Nena Lim

Suitable for beginners, your Tutor Nena will guide you through this ancient practice, focusing on easy to follow Wudang style movements, incorporating Qi Gong breathing, stretches and warm up. No previous experience is necessary.

Tap 'n Jazz 'n More!

Jan Hooker

The basis for this class is to explore movement, co-ordination and rhythm. Basic tap dance steps and jazz ballet routines will feature as the major part of the classes, while exploration of some other dance styles may be included from time to time. Ideally, the class will be progressive so that skills taught and developed can be improved and maintained as the year rolls along. There is also an element of 'fun' in all classes. A reasonable level of fitness is required. Comfortable clothing is best with lower legs in clear view (i.e. No long skirts). Must wear enclosed shoes. Footwear will be leather or vinyl soles, as steel taps are not permitted. Rubber soles are not recommended. The technique will be Soft Shoe Shuffle. Some previous experience helpful but not essential.

Yoga

Chair Yoga

Theresa Jennings WED (Term 3) / Melanie Parkinson FRI (Term 4)

Looking for a safe and gentle, yet effective yoga practice that doesn't have you performing those 'pretzel-like' yoga positions? A practice where you can enjoy all the benefits of traditional yoga whilst being comfortably supported by a chair? This Chair Yoga course has you in mind. If limited mobility or injuries are holding you back from enjoying your body to the fullest, then you owe it to yourself to give this course a try. It's an amazing way to safely stretch and strengthen your body.

Yoga Intermediate

Gailene Wester

Welcome to a class in Hatha Yoga, intermediate level. This class invites you to work with and be in your body, increase body awareness, using the breath to relax and lengthen tight muscles – never going into pain. Included will be warmups, lengthening movements leading to the simpler Yoga Asanas, breathing techniques, and occasional concentration, bandhas and full relaxation. Please wear comfortable clothing, bring along a yoga mat each week and a covering for relaxation during the colder days.

Yoga Plus

Virginia Milner

Yoga Plus combines all the gentle yoga stretching moves and relaxation with other gentle exercise modalities for health and wellness. Improve yoga, strength, balance and brain function.

Yoga & Qi Gong

Andy Khong

Combination of Yoga and Qi Gong (Chi Kung) which comprises pranayama (breath control), stretching, mudras (spiritual gestures/energy seals), bandhas (energy locking), sound intonation, meditation, self-massage, self-healing and chakra connection. Plus simple energizing, cleansing, and balancing movements to promote flow of energy to improve your life force and strength of will. Please note: Yoga & Qi Gong class is available for Term 4 only at this stage.

GENERAL

Mindfulness Meditation

Doreen Boss

Meditation is a state of deep relaxation of the body and mind which produces a different level of consciousness than either sleep or wakefulness. It has numerous benefits physically, mentally and emotionally. Meditation enhances well-being, reduces stress and puts day-to-day life into perspective. This class is suitable for all levels.

Please note: There are two sessions available for this class. Students are permitted to enrol in only one of these sessions (either the 10am or 11am only), as the same meditation will be shared in both sessions.

Walk Around Town

David Dobb

A look at some interesting places within an hour and a half's stroll of the School. Students require a good level of general fitness for walking and climbing stairs. Wear comfortable and appropriate clothing, including a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen and bring along a water bottle. This class departs from the foyer outside TSFS Reception each week.

LANGUAGES

It is advisable to commence beginner level language courses at the start of the year. These courses are intended to be continued throughout the year, subject to availability.

French

French Beginners

Cathleen Palmer (MON)/ Jann Rutherford (WED)

This is an introductory course for beginners with limited French language experience. Whilst concentrating mainly on pronunciation and basic grammar, the aim is to enthuse and inspire, encouraging students to leave anxiety behind and discover the joy of learning a foreign language whilst having fun.

French Beginners Plus

Jann Rutherford(WED & THU)/ Cathleen Palmer(MON)

A course for beginners with a small amount of French language knowledge. Emphasis is on practical enjoyment of the French language and culture.

Carol Millner

A workshop format class open to writers of all levels. Beginners and experienced writers welcome. A range of writing exercises will be used to assist participants to generate new material.

Life Matters

Murray Cox

A discussion group looking at the social and emotional issues which touch our lives. A preparation guide is distributed a week in advance to help everyone focus on the topic of the day. The discussion format is initially structured, followed by an open-ended style. This class promises to be both stimulating and useful. Access to the internet for research will be helpful. See the TSFS website for a detailed course description. Suitable for students with all levels of language ability.

Life Writing

Ruth Newman (WED)/ Lesa Melnychuk Morgan (MON)

Students explore aspects of memoir writing and strategies for recording the journey of their personal experiences.

Manuscript Development

Carol Millner

This course is designed for people who have already started a manuscript and are interested in developing it further. Emphasis will be placed on developing your work into a book length project.

THE ARTS

Sing Along

Cathleen Palmer

A fun class for singers and non-singers. All welcome. A variety of songs each week, representing different eras and styles.

Music Appreciation

Ian Fairnie

Come expand your musical experience by listening to a great variety of classical music from the Renaissance period (1400-1550) through to the present day.

Ukulele

Ukulele Beginners

Joe Wisniewski

This is a good time to start learning to play one of the world's most popular instruments because, most people who have one, can get a tune out of it. You may have one lying around the house, or know someone who might lend you theirs. For those who do not have a uke come to the first class to find out what to look for. Come along with or without a uke and find out your hidden talent. The class will start with a step-by-step introduction to the ukulele, how to tune the ukulele and then you will learn chords. Some chords only use one or two fingers. Then we pick a song and play together, learning more as we go. If you can sing, bonus!

Ukulele Advanced

Joe Wisniewski

This class is for those who have been playing for a while to advance to the next level.

RECREATIONAL

Bridge

Bridge for Beginners

Sandra & Don Sutton-Mattocks

Learn the basics of bridge; the play, the bidding and scoring in a fun, relaxed class. Great for brain health and friendship. After completing one term of this class, students will have confidence in their knowledge of the game to move to an intermediate class or a bridge club.

Bridge for Beginners & Improvers

Sandra & Don Sutton-Mattocks

Learn the game of bridge; the play, the bidding and scoring in a fun, relaxed class. Great for brain health and friendship. All levels of Bridge experience welcome; from the beginner to advanced students.

Canasta Five

Canasta Five MON – Beginners

Barry Etherington

Canasta Five is a very popular, sociable and enjoyable card game that will keep your mind active whilst enjoying the company of others. Beginners are very warmly welcomed. If you have not tried it before – why not try it now!

Canasta Five Club MON & WED – Experienced Players

The Club is on Mondays and Wednesdays. This class is designed for experienced players as there is no tuition in this class. It is a very social game which gives you the opportunity to meet with other experienced players in a friendly setting. Whenever possible, partner Canasta is played (dependent upon the total number of persons attending at any one time) though this cannot be guaranteed.

Chess

David Dobb

If you would love to learn how to beat your grandchildren at chess, come and join us. Fine tune the strategies and skills needed to checkmate your opponent's King. Playing Chess is great way to keep your mind sharp by trying new tactics and strategies. Beginners welcome. Players need perseverance and patience!

Chinese Mahjong

Chinese Mahjong Continued

Eenie Khoo

Chinese Mahjong is a game of skill, strategy, calculation and to a certain degree, luck! Learn how to play this intriguing brain game, which not only is fun to play but also stimulates the brain and enhances memory and attention. Chinese Mahjong based on the Cantonese version will be played. Malaysian/Singaporean style gameplay, rules and scoring system are used. Experienced players welcome. No beginners.

Cryptic Crosswords

Edward Reeves

Come along to solve cryptic crossword puzzles as a group. Learn about the history of Cryptic Crossword puzzles, the parts of a cryptic clue and types of cryptic clues with examples. More puzzles to solve at home and discuss solutions the following week. Students need to bring paper, pen, pencil, eraser and a switched-on brain, if possible.
